Proclamation – Overdose Awareness Day

INTERNATIONAL OVERDOSE AWARENESS DAY

WHEREAS, since 2001, the international community has come together every August 31st to commemorate family members, friends, and fellow citizens who have passed away due to drug overdose; and

WHEREAS, according to 2015 data from the Centers for Disease Control, there were 52,404 deaths, or 144 drug overdose deaths per day in the United States, which is an 11.4 percent increase in just one year; and

WHEREAS, according to the New Jersey Medical Examiner's Office, there were 1,587 drug overdose deaths in 2015, the most recent year for which official data is available. Heroin was identified in 918 cases.

WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reports that 174 Americans die each day from a drug overdose. For the 12 month period ending June 2017, CDS reported that 66,817 individuals died from a drug overdose. The United States saw an increase in drug overdose deaths of 21 percent between 2015 and 2016.

WHEREAS, 2,000 New Jersey residents died of a drug overdose in 2016 – more than from guns, car accidents and suicides combined.

WHEREAS, Overdose Awareness Day is committed to providing a platform to acknowledge the grief felt by families and friends who have lost loved ones to overdose and to raise awareness that the tragedy of overdose related death is preventable; and

WHEREAS, drug overdose knows no limits; it does not recognize victims' race, religion, socio-economic status, or family ties; anyone can battle drug addiction and face a possible overdose; but, recognizing overdose warning signs enables and empowers families and friends to prevent overdose-related death by calling for help; and

JULY 16, 2018

WHEREAS, members of the community and organizations associated with drug abuse prevention and aid will work to remove the stigma associated with overdose-related deaths and reinforce the belief that no one should feel shame or disgrace due to an overdose-related death of a loved one; and

WHEREAS, organizations such as Recovery Advocates for the Shore (RAFTS) and the Shore Community Alliance strive daily to make overdose and overdose-related deaths a thing of the past;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Manasquan declare August 31, 2018 as Overdose Awareness Day in Borough of Manasquan and ask residents to remember those who were lost, those who are struggling, and those who are in recovery.
